By F. B. G.

return to give assurance that as a soldier lad in the dark days of the

New York Hotel Arrivals.

Park Avenue-

Wellington-

Latham-

Merchants and Buyers.

Arrivals from Baltimore were Mrs. B. M. Andrews.

Mrs. L. A. Craig. Murray Hill-

Mrs. N. R. Deane.

R. P. Falkner

J. A. Frany. M. J. Lynch.

Empire— J. H. Hoffman.

Grand-P. M. De Leon.

H. C. Hodges, jr.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Mrs. F. Robinson.

E. S. Morgan. Mrs. E. S. Morgan.

Navarre-

G. C. Beyer.

C. F. Jenkins.

V. J. Lovelesz.

H. Grunebaum, Wallick,

F. F. Miller.

THE WASHINGTON HERALD

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING BY WASHINGTON HERALD COMPANY 1225 New York Avenue. Telephone MAIN 2300.

CLINTON T. BRAINARD, President and Editor.

Advertising Offices.

NEW YORK, J. C. Wilberding, Brunswick building. CHICAGO, A. R. Keator, Hartford Building. ATLANTIC CITY, C. K. Abbot, Bartlett Building.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY CARRIER

SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY MAIL sly and Sunday 45 cents per month

Entered at the postoffice at Washington, D. C. as

THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1914.

not cold ones.

to lay its head.

know it or not.

the other end of the line on a rainy day? Texans don't care if gasoline goes to 40 cents a scarce and business slack.

gallon. Nobody out there drinks gasoline.

make housekeeping just one thing after another.

You can never tell. Up in New Jersey a minister has been convicted of running a loan shark business.

About the only advantage in taking advice is that blame on.

Despite what Gen. Sherman said, we don't believe war will ever be as bad as it is pictured in some of the "extras."

What will it profit the people of China if they suppress the opium traffic and turn around and begin smoking cigarettes?

Huerta-will, no doubt, recall what happened to Aguinaido when he learns that Gen. Fred Funston is on his way to Mexico.

It is to be hoped that the Ohio man who, at the age of seventy-four, is cutting his third set of teeth, does not cry about it at night.

Now there is talk of increasing the tax on beer in order to defray the expenses of the war. Why not put a tax on grape juice, too?

There will be a demand for a law to regulate the newspapers in South Carolina so long as the Columbia State prints such rotten poetry.

Laugh, and the world laughs with you; weep, and you weep alone; be flush, and the boys will touch you; go broke, and you can't raise a loan.

An Atlanta paper says that in a shooting scrape in that town the other night an innocent bystander was wounded but fails to state where the visitor was from.

The Houston Post rises to remark that if Cole Blease had been living in the days of Balaam he would have been saddled and bridled and ridden through the streets of Jerusalem.

makes us eager to see the main show next month. If the opposition. it only comes up to vesterday's sample, and the route will be changed so as to include New York avenue, we will move that the unanimous vote of the District of Columbia be cast for suffrage.

with him rather than telephone to the police to come and catch him.

prohibitive tax on premium coupons given away with tral in their sympathies, which means only that they as authentic because he told it himself. When he Aigonquincigarettes and tobacco in other forms it is difficult to have in view Mexico's interests as well as ours. went to Washington in 1902 at the invitation of Presisee. Obviously the consumer pays for the coupons Therefore we should not be in too great haste to and the so-called "gifts." From the standpoint of the concede, and not too ambitious to lead in every policy manufactures, with the coupons abolished, the basis of of pacification. competition will be changed for all alike from razors and college colors to tobacco.

Washington high school cadets who want to go to time to consider what it means to Huerta. We may Public Ledger. war but it is difficult to see what advantage it will be well take a leaf out of his book and proceed with to them to be given credit for school work while they slow caution. are at the front. Giving them credit will not increase So far the mediators have dealt only with Huerta, their sum of knowledge. As it is, however, there is and as we cannot under any possible circumstances reason for hope that there will be no war, and in any be forced into the absurd attitude of awaiting mediaevent the country will hardly find it necessary to send tion on the salute incident alone, we need be in no its high school boys to fight the Mexicans.

the Department of Justice with a suitable building. Carranza. Presumanty it is the anni to the department of Justice with a suitable building. The House of Representatives is soon to appropriate situation without accepting the advice or aid of any $3,000,000 for its construction on the site south of European power, and with the Monroe doctrine, as a British commander sent inland a force of marines to bring out Americans who were in danger.

The kitchen door was left open and British commander sent inland a force of marines to bring out Americans who were in danger. has for years been housed in different buildings at an and with good reason, the support of their repreannual rental cost of nearly $50,000 is a discredit to sentatives, with everything that the word implies. the government, besides being very poor economy.

Representative Prouty's little jig saw chart, intended to show that Washington pays no taxes to speak now steering, force must give way to vigilance. of, while every other city is heavily burdened was shot to pieces by Representative Madden in the House last Monday, and with it went the whole absurd theory built on fiction and bolstered by reckless oratory, that American bluejackets and marines when they landed upon the legislative function—Mr. Cannon and Mr. Penrose may be astonished to learn this—and President this city is especially favored. And all Mr. Madden in Vera Cruz. The Essex's colors were half-masted Wilson is a grim shepherd herding a broken-spirited when the American dead were taken back to the ships. Congress and driving the flock through great holes when the American dead were taken back to the ships, ington, how much he pays a year in taxes, and how much he will sell it for, with similar information regarding his real estate in Chicago. The panicky deshet hat followed Mr. Madden's calm presentation of facts is reproduced on this page of The Herald. Surely the Senator from New York will not perfect to renor persentation in the Every one interested in the subject of taxation in the District of Columbia will enjoy reading it.

Some one in London has just paid £210 for this horror in his soul, Mr. Oliver must view at that the constitution.

With this horror in his soul, Mr. Oliver must view at the constitution.

With this horror in his soul, Mr. Oliver must view at the appropriate of British are not at the aspects of his times with alarm and anticipate the fluture with dread. A dictator comes with the mob at his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. A dictator comes with the mob at his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. A dictator comes with the mob at his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. A dictator comes with the mob at his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. A dictator comes with the mob at his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. A dictator comes with the mob at his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. A dictator comes with the mob at his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. A dictator comes with the mob at his chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. There is something ironic lat his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. There is something ironic lat his 'chariot tail; citizens bar their doors and in the future with dread. The analysis of the future with dread. The analysis of the future with dread. The analysis of the future with dread. A dictator comes with the

The Labor War in Colorado.

At this distance and possessed of only meager deails of the causes of the conflict between striking followers of Huerta and Villa at Torreon. .

has given to American history a blackened, disgrace- Let not sleep become a bugbear, ful page. It is the duty of these American soldiers Different people differ greatly in the amount of tul page. It is the duty of these American soldiers Different people differ greatly in the amount of the Sharp advance announcement that to put a sudden end to a greed-begotten slaughter sleep actually needed. Perhaps there is no one line the would not ask nomination in the new said of a statement made to me by a that has no place in a civilized country, and that duty of thought so valuable as this. The man who writes that has no place in a civilized country, and that duty of thought so valuable as this. The man who writes that he suggestion that he long-time neighbor and personal they will perform, even to the extent of firing a volley that he has not siept over four hours in twenty-four sia. He is a citizen of wealth and of scattering death in the ranks of the aggressors, no during the last four years present comfort to those education, polish and attainments more matter on which side they may be fighting. Aftermatter on which side they may be fighting. After- who are getting frightened. He is alive and able to Soldiers on the march may develop sore feet, but with which we have long been familiar. On the one sleepless millions is a consolation. What multitudes side is the labor organization, laying down certain are doing you can do. conditions with which they demand their employers By the way, who told you that you must sleep eight The poor little dove of peace hasn't got a place must comply. On the other side are the employers or nine hours per day? Or is six hours the law, and, Some people will tell you everything, whether they are waiting to fill every job on the terms offered. Suppose I do not want to go to bed at all for a night. Why is it that your umbrella is either broken or at men have chosen a bad time to attempt to enforce this abominable darkness out of doors that everybody are crowded and labor is cheap, when profits are tyranny; this is one-half the trouble.

Too many cooks spoil the broth, and they also ke housekeeping just one thing after another.

Too many cooks spoil the broth, and they also ke housekeeping just one thing after another.

Too many cooks spoil the broth, and they also story of the old differences, that must all be investible investible. It sets form the old differences, that must all be investible will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be presided. It sets form the old differences, that must all be investible will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be proposition. Hence will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be proposition. The cold differences will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be proposition. The cold differences will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be proposition. The cold differences will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be proposition. The cold difference will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be proposition. The cold difference will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be proposition. The cold difference will-o'-the-wisp. I am not trying to catch you. I do the power that creates Ambassadors can be proposition. The cold difference will be pr probably be no nearer a solution of the problem that catch you. may be numbered among the greatest curses which The basic trouble is, as suggested, that the hemi-

if things go wrong you will have somebody to put the ployed and vice versa. When both sides realize it to the fashion are dead in sleep. That leaves you be given to the nation's prosperity.

Repeal Victory Complete.

President Wilson's victory on the question of Panama Canal tolls is complete. The law which exempts American ships engaged in coastwise trade from the payment of tolls for passage through the Panama Canal is to be repealed. Even the most with the majority to go lie down and do this thing—

Something that with you is unnatural. A plin to come congressman, aided by Harvey Garber, at Columbus, is giving Cox some worry. Whitaere is hardly big and broad enough for State leadership, and lacks the crafty equipment of Garber, though no less with the majority to go lie down and do this thing vehement opponents of repeal are willing to admit sleep. How absurd. You, rather, are like Napoleon persistent in pursuing a foe. In fact, the defeat now. The Senate will present an overwhelmdefeat now. The Senate will present an overwhelmling majority in favor of correcting a mistaken ecoling majority in favor of correcting a mistaken economic policy and saving the United States from almost never sleeps. President Wilson says he must appearing among the nations of the earth as a forger have nine hours' sleep. Very well. There is no obor a stealthy picknocket

The despairing, sinking cry for vindication of the advocates of a disguised ship subsidy is that the bill repealing the law granting passage through the canal lutely meaningless, though it may save the faces of few frail vestals who tarried too long with the swashbucklers. It proclaims flambuoyantly that in repealing the law exempting our ships from payment of tolls we sacrifice none of our rights under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. Highly important and gratifying, no doubt, to the exemptionists, but of the utmost indifference to the repeal advocates, since it leaves repeal, the one issue, absolutely secure. At iclding even the shadow of a right under the treaty: the amendment will add no fragment to it and will take no fragment away.

The national honor right justice and common sense are going to prevail through the vote of the wise and great majority in the Senate which will care That little preliminary suffrage parade yesterday not to observe the subterranean avenues of escape of Beware of Latin Diplomacy.

It needs our wisest heads to consider its every proposal. No one man's answer should be given to any The policeman who, from the street, shot twice at a suggestion, no matter how trivial it may appear. The woman in her own house, mistaking her for a bur- members of the Cabinet should share the responsi- bor drops in to tell all his well-worn stories over and Yorkglar, is probably glad he is a poor marksman and that bility of our every action. We must not let gratitude over. Sleep, when we surrender to it, is unspeakably

It would be short-sighted folly to assume that be- only then, is sleep worth while. cause these nations tendered their "good offices" first to the United States that they are working solely in What possible objection there can be to placing a the interest of this nation. Presumably they are neu-

The proposal of an armistice, even, should not be had been in the army."

"Yes, Mr. President," replied Reading's chieftain, agreed to without deliberation. On its face it is "Yes, Mr. Freside harmless and does not interfere with our preparations Everybody will admire the plucky spirit of those for war within our own boundaries. But let us take hurry to accede to propositions in which Huerta concurs. Rather we should wait until the mediators Progress is at last being made toward providing propose something tangible coming from Villa or thing to have a friend in Germany at Tampico when the Department of Justice with a suitable building. Carranza. Presumably it is the aim to compose the of Huerta.

Who can make a serience and use the American lives were threatened by the armed forces the eacher of the second grade. "You may tell us, Johnny," indicating during the crisis of the past few days, when American lives were in peril.

In the mined channels of diplomacy, where we are Hard for Senator O'Gorman.

The sailors of the British cruiser Essex cheered the

By RMORY J. HAYNES.

I am asked to discuss it. But none who ever ex-William Graves Sharp, home posteffice address Elyria, continues the one serene Democrat of the Ohio delegation. First of all he is not asking another nominaminers and State militia at Trinidad, Colo, any at- perienced "insomnia" could describe it. None who tempt to discuss the merits of the quarrel which led ever suffered it would, if he could, inflict the tale on tion to Congress. He carried a strong Republican district three times in sucto such savage warfare and reckless sacrifice of others. We do know that, except in rare instances, the coman life, in which women and children were not beginning of this sore affliction is plainly understood. spared, would be as futile as to try to dissect and It is this approach that is worth nearly every person's analyze the motives which inspired the bloodthirsty considerate attention. Get out of doors and breathe pure air. Look carefully at the diet and discover what One thing is perfectly clear, President Wilson is disturbing that great stomach nerve that is so closeadopted the only course open to him in dispatching ly influential with the brain. Pull yourself together Federal troops to the scene of a cruel warfare which and refuse to become morbid on the subject of sleep.

show that the bloody conflict is different from those not pull himself together, the contemplation of these refusing to be dictated to, claiming that they are treat. if so, who knows it to be so in your case? This ing the workers fairly and that two or more men nameless tyranny of bedtime is a queer thrall, anyway. Labor is arrogant; capital is obdurate; bloodshed is Who says I must? If sleep refuses to come, why, let the result. In the end both will lose heavily. The the coy thing go. Why must I chase after it? It is the most powerful bemocratic entire the coy thing go. their demands, when the ranks of the unemployed else bows to, and all the world goes dead under its

I am tired. Very well. I will change my muscular The statement of John D. Rockefeller, jr., throws exertion. I will get a new lot of brain fells into use. no new light on the situation. It sets forth the old That will rest me. I snap my fingers at sleep, this thorities; and when that is done, unhappily we shall if you please. I would not cross the dooryard to sides. There is a general feeling that in sood time Sharp will be made sador to Russia and there will may be numbered among the greatest curses which have retarded the nation's growth and prosperity.

Labor is prosperous when capital is profitably employed and vice versa. When both sides realize it to the fashion are dead in sleep. That leaves you alphonos Taft years ago was Minister to the fashion are dead in sleep. That leaves you alphonos Taft years ago was Minister to the fashion are dead in sleep. Appnoised and work with that end in view a new impetus will alone. There is no companionship. The house is to Russia after a season in Austria, and no Ohio citizen has since been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was be given to the nation's prosperity.

Appnoised and the tools and the tools and the roar of the current was out and the roar of the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was by Arthur, and that was over thirty was by Arthur, and that was over the word of friends on an island in Lake Chambers of the Czar. Taft's appointment was by Arthur, and that it blew all the tools of friends on an island in Lake Chambers of the Czar. Taft's appointment was by Arthur, and that was over thirty was by Arthur, and that was over thirty was by Arthur, and that was over the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the Czar. Taft's appointment was been sent to the court of the hypoes. You take something. Then you are lost! was by Arthur, and that was over thirty It is this taking a pill that rivets the fetter. Small years ago. The Sharp withdrawal from active hope after that.

Just think of taking a pill to force yourself to do complish renomething that with you is unnatural. A pill to comnomination, but Whitacre, the Canton something that with you is unnatural. A pill to coming majority in favor of correcting a mistaken eco- now and then. Or like your family doctor, who cager to nominate himself. have time hours' sleep. Very well. There is no objection. But you are not like Wilson. You differ from him in many ways. Let it go so. He needs nominee for governor of West Virginia, is a proud father, but an anxious one, in these days of war and rumors of war. Only two weeks ago his only daughter free of tolls is to be amended. That is probably true, Why not ease a little cambric tea into the exhausted system of the hysterical patient?

It is not sleep that is the trouble. It is a betyons free from the first to cure your nerves? Sleeplessings the only son of the Hon Louis, a student at Harvard, was the first to system of the hysterical patient? It is not sleep that is the trouble. It is a nervous srand wedding, taking the famous name carried on with friction. Get at that friction. Intense work at the end of the day breaks down nerves. Try to maintain a happy evening. Let the later hours be pleasant and conduce to repose.

Sleep is a result, not an aim. Sleep follows as a sequence, not an object of pursuit. There are many involuntary functions of the body. Every effort to son remain in school rather than march make an involuntary physical action subject to the voli- away to war tion, forcing it to action on orders, is worse than useless. It is precisely the same as crying for the moon. the present moment there is no word in the Sims bill He who resolves to directly order his respiration, counting his breaths, soon loses his senses. He presently seems to get short of deep breaths. Poor man, the spirit of the lad, and they recalled the spirit of the spirit of the lad, and they recalled the spirit of the spirit o let your breathing alone. It is an involuntary action. And sleep belongs in this class.

You cannot sleep? Then play the piano, read a book, get at your bobby, your favorite avocation if it is a work bench and a kit of tools. Do the thing generation, you enjoy doing. Be a boy playing with some favorite toy, hour after hour there in the quiet night watches. This is so much more rational than drinking a quart Latin diplomacy is a dangerous thing to trifle with. of hot oatmeal porridge, which you do not like to do.

Sleep is delicious when it lies in wait for you, stealing on you like a charming lover. In the church pew, woman hears, or thinks she hears, a burglar in the house she will probably prefer to take her chances guarding our every interest

Anecdote of George Baer.

This little story of President Baer you may accept Roosevelt, who was trying to settle the big strike, Mr. Baer wore in the lapel of his coat his army button. "Hello!" exclaimed the colonel, slapping the rail-road official upon the back; "I never knew before you

President Roosevelt saw the point of the remark, Bond, S. Goldstein, Grand; J. E. Lewis, Grand Union; C. H. Owens, R. E. Robert-son, Grand; M. P. Andrews, Park Avebut Mr. Baer didn't know whether or not he liked it .-

Are Friends Worth Saving?

We would like to ask those Senators who have been opposing the President on the question of canal tolls whather it was a good thing to have a friend in Cran Manhattan; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. whether it was a good thing to have a friend in Great Britain when Admiral Cradock stopped Huerta's am-munition from being taken by a British ship to Tam-

HISTORY BUILDERS. Political Procession.

How the Late George Westinghous Found Natural Gas. Written Expressly for The Herald. By DR. E. J. EDWARDS.

Mr. Arthur Warren, who was fo kitchen cabinet combination at Columi personal relation with the late George bus with a new district almost impossible for any Democrat to carry and espebus with a new district almost imposation of the political game.

This was done because he had the temerity to be a candidate for the governorship nomination against Jimmie Cox, a colleague in Congress. Following the Sharp advance annuncement that I was reminded by what Mr. Warre

"When George Westinghouse, at of risk of his private fortune, brought Even those artful Democratic pletters natural gas into Pitusburgh he gave wards the State of Colorado must deal with the situation.

In all the available information there is nothing to diplomatic honors and oddly enough they addition, his method of utilizing natwere honest about it, also unusually inural gas changed domestic conditions in the homes.
"I knew Mr. Westinghouse in the and fitness of the man was finally recog-nized and appreciated even by his late rivals and foes.

While the appointment of Sharp to St.

While the appointment of Sharp to St.

Can tell you with accuracy the story "Sav soundhist first," insisted Stafford. can tell you with accuracy Petersburg was pending the toils trouble of the manner in which he came up and other Ohio members were agitated, wondering how to concur with ized natural gas. He decided to put a well down upon his land sufficiently large to supply his own house with the President and avert castigation by the most powerful Democratic editor of gas. When the well was down about eighty feet gas was struck, but as it was marsh gas and the supply doubt-ful, the drillers were ordered to go on. limore convention, demanding then what "I watched daily the progress of this the platform rejected and what the experiment. , I saw the proceeding with their knew that as they progressed and found no gas Mr. Westinghouse's patience was greatly tested. Still he views of today, but was simply two years ahead of the Executive in proclaim-drilled down about 2,000 feet. I asked him how far he proposed to go down.

and he replied:

"Why." the man replied, earnestly. eral commendation by both Republicans and he replied: "'Indeed, I don't know. I don't like to stop and I don't want to go on."

"Before we reached the Union Station that day the drillers struck a flow of was shot at Buffalo. Theodore Roosevelt. nan who drew an elephant in the lothe and many others thought his fortune would be wrecked before the enterprise got into successful operation. I met him one day at the railroad station and I then the successful operation and I then the successful operation and I then the successful operation.

Hon. Louis Bennett, late Democratic said and then added: You will make a success of it for the reason that the commercial utilization of electricity depends almost exclusively upon mechanifrom him in many ways. Let it go so. He needs only two weeks ago his only daughter was married here in Washington with a washington washington with a washington w of McKinley at the altar. Only two days ago the only ago of the Hor. Levis, and the only ago of the Hor. Levis, archieved so greatly in the field of elec-(Convright, 1914.)

Tomorrow Dr. Edwards will tell of gratulation, father Bennett bounded for a Baltimore and Ohio train, consulting time-tables en route and, arriving at Cam-bridge somewhat tired and hungry but Leave granted Second Limit Joseph O. Daly Pire with mother Bennett in Washington on releved from treatment at the General Hospit the return to give assurance that their Fort Bayard, N. Mex., and upon the expiration seminand of the Coost Defenses of Cristobal and of where the bedroom incident occurred, the same rate that everybods else pays. I am not making this argument on account of the commanding officer. Coast Defenses of Chafedon, will proved in Cristobal, Canal Zone.

ARMY ORDERS

To me or about May 16, 134, and upon arrival there will report to the commanding officer. Coast Incident Coast Inciden

A beard of officers to consist of Capt. Harry O. Williard. Fifth Cavalry: Capt. Clemens W. Mc. Millian. Medical Corrs. First Lieut. Dawson Olmstead. Third Field Artiflers: Frest Lieut. Charles C. Hillman. Medical Corfs. and Second Lieut. Homer M. Gominger. Fifth Cavalry: is appointed to meet at First Myer. Va., at 19 o'clock a. m. Tuesday. May 3 1914, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the purpose of conducting the examination of such applicants for commissions in solunteer forces as may be authorized to appear before it, under section 2 of an act of Congress approved January 21, 1963, to determine their qualifications for the command of troops or the performance of staff duties in such forces, The examination will be conducted under the provisions of general orders, Nn. S. War Department, March 25, 1992.

The hunter member of the board other than a medical officer will act as recorder. A heard of officers to consist of Capt, Harry O the Worst. nue; A. F. Fischer, Albert; P. W. Keech, Park Avenue; W. S. Kidwell, Herald junior member of the board other than a al offierr will act as recorder. t. Cyrus A. Dolple, Quartermaster Corps, will ed with the least practicable delay to Fort ertaining to the Quartermaster Corps.

Rrig. 15cn. Ramsay D. Potts, E. S. A., will pro-

The kitchen door was left open and commendation of the enumeration of the executive upon the legislative function—was standing these mights, but now Senator Oliver, of Pennsylvania, speaks up in Boston and confesses that his are the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, make the dreadful nights and his the broken sleep, the constitution.

With this horror in his soul, Mr. Oliver must view the aspects of his times with alarm and anticipate future with dread. A dictator comes with the most is 'chariot tail; citizens but their dreadful citizens the dreadful citizens th

Statesmen, Real and Near.

By FRED C. KELLY. the postoffice committee which was a it is quite out of order for any personnel than the postoffice and the served on the postoffice committee of much turmoil. It was a to tell what his personal according to be held with the personal according to be held with the personal according to the the personal according cubated in the postoffice committee. Vic-tor Murdock and a minority of the com-were enough votes present to pass the bill out of committee, and the chairman prepared to do so.

Stafford, of Wisconsin.

subsidy. We can't stop them from passing it out, because they've got the votes, "The trouble is," whispered back Vic-tor, "that I don't know anything about opment I "No, you talk first," insisted Stafford.

the story "Say something—anything. You know ed in having this the most beautiful citfirst util- more about it than I do."

when the well was down about by feet gas was struck, but as it can be supply his own house with about ships and ship subsidy, wondering the could think of enough great many cases to determine what is things to say to last another sentence. Then Stafford made a brief talk. He drillers were to be on the safe side, he did not distheir work, and I cuss ships much, preferring the safer they progressed and ground of generalties.

The chairman put the question to a lost by the rather meager margin of one "I met him one, day on the usual morning train from the suburbs to the was one of those who had changed sides, city. I knew that the well had been and Murdock went over to him to ask

"those two speeches convinced me

On the day that William McKinley of McKinley's assassination, members of There followed the decision to con-he gas into Pittsburgh, and in car-staries. Roosevelt told one about a queer rying out that plan so that it would experience he had not long after he work perfectly there came a time when went out West as a young man to build one day at the railroad station and I lion, and the one shack of a note! in the asked him, 'What next?'

"He replied instantly, 'I am a fool if I up in his brand-new cowboy clother, that branded him as a tenderfoot, went that branded him as a tenderfoot, went to the hotel proprietor and asked if there was not a possibility of getting a bed, had taken up electricity. When next I the proprietor said there was just one Mr. Madden-I supplied in the said to the hotel proprietor said there was just one Mr. Madden-I supplied in the said the one shack of a note! In the place was crowded. Roosevelt, all done stead of paying 61-2 on the full value I am saying 61-2 on the full value I had bed that didn't have two people in it. do.

was not in the room. Both room and bed looked rather good to Roosevelt, Westinghouse though and he determined to indresse is field of elec- and get into bed and make explanation to the other man when he came in a dream-like knowledge of somebody entering the room at some time during the night, but he did not wake up. The next what the gentleman said he naid for t.

Mr. Sims-I want to know if the gentle some one had slept in the bed with him man knows of any village anywhere in ful politeness and consideration of a Mr. Madden-i will say to you riperson who would find a stranger in his low that I own a piece of property the Psenty-tight Infantry need and let him snarr it without a quest in the house in which I live regiment. Lieut, Flord a out the name of the kind person, but here is worth and on it, instead of pay-

And to this day, same to which transferred.

And to this day, same to which transferred.

And to this day, same to which transferred.

First Lieut, Henry B. Clagett, Twenty third Infantisett, Henry B. Clagett, Twenty third in this care little Island in Lake Champlain, "I have Mr. Sims-There is not any village it.

If admiration for the second scheduled to lease New York, N. Y. on or about Vermont then not far from the island. He more pays $130 taxes here, I assume that but insisted that different May 16, 1914, and upon arrival there will assume began to ask questions about the town the people in Washington are not unprevail and that one more command of the Coast Defenses of Cristolal and of where the bedroom incident occurred, the

And it was even so. When the fleet was ordered to Mexico Second Lieut Harvey C. Allen is relieved from the staff of the commanding officer, Coast Defenses of Balbea, and will report to the commanding officer. Coast Defenses of Cratobal, for assignment to duty on his staff.

Capt. John P. Wade, cavalry, unassigned, is assignment to the Second Cavalry and will proceed to join his regiment. He will be assigned to a troop by his regiment He will be assigned to a troop by his regiment of commander.

When the flect was ordered to Mexico the Union, in all the other day, several Washington newspaper correspondents were hurriedly sent have great manufacturing enterprises along. No one had more than an hour's our people. Here there is no such thing, the polymorphism of the Control of the Second Cavalry and will proceed to be in regiment to the second of the Union, in all the cities of all the States of the Union, in all the design of the Union, in all the cities of all the States of the Union, in all the design of the States of the Union, in all the cities of all the States of the Union, we paper correspondents were hurriedly sent to the manufacturing enterprises, along. No one had more than an hour's our people. Here there is no such thing, the government departments take the given his regimental commander.

with its regiment. He will be assigned to a troop one's frunk or hatboxes. Archie Jamison, who represents one of the big news services took just one article of bag-large of the factories in the District of Columbia, and the department is the only services. took just one article of bag-large which he obtained after a made of the factories in the District of Columbia, and the department is the only place where people can find employment. Second Lieut. Edward S. Harrison, Coast Artillers. He was unable to get a clean collar or even a toothbrush, but he took.

Gen. Leenard Wood. ers, is relieved from his present duties, will pro-red to First Werden, Wash., and report to the storms arise and all on board the numanding officer Coast Defenses of Figget Sound, assignment to duty with a company in his com-wet. Jamiscon alone will be precon-When

The Census Taker-How many are there

temperary duty Portugunder, and four little Portugos-learn such awful language?"

"Learn it, ma'am?" asked the man in surprise. "You don't learn it; it's a

TAXES IN DISTRICT.

Representative Madden Upsets Theory that We Don't Pay Enough.

rare thing for a meeting to be held with- anywhere, and particularly in the Dis out some form of hostilities, and Victor's sandy hair and fighting spirit lent themselves nicely to the prevailing scheme.

It came about that there was a plan framed to pass a ship subsidy bill in that I am paying over $130 a year taxes and I am willing to sell it to anybody who wants it for that price. Now, that is $1.30 instead of 65 cents on $100. There House.

Is no place in America where the mones one day it was apparent that there is expended as judiciously as it is in this

Mr. Borland-Then the gentleman Representative Stafford, of Wisconsin, turned to Victor Murdock and whispered by raising it, because I am paying on "Get up and make a talk against ship the full value of it now.

Mr. Borland—Then the gentleman Mr. Borland-Then the gentleman would gain, perhaps, by having other woman, and child in America is interest in America.

Mr. Cooper-Will the gentleman yield for an interruption the full valuation o' property? Mr. Madden-Why nebody

Mr. Mann-But when it comes to writing a chart they can tell exactly.

Mr. Madden-Yes; when it comes to writing a chart you can tell, but there is no way on earth that any man can you assess property on the basis of the full value of it or on the basis of 10 per Mr. Garrett, of Texas-How does the gentleman arrive at the value Mr. Madden-I do not arrive at it. I am simply saying to you that I will sell it to you for $10.000 e gentleman is paying on the full val-

Mr. Madden-I am simply saying that I will sell the house for $16,000, and that I am paying $150 a year taxes. I do not Mr. Garrett, of Texas-Who fixes the

Mr. Garrett, of Texas-Did they have idea what it cost the gentleman? r. Madden-I do not know anything stand the gentleman to say what he paid for the property.

Mr. Madden-I told what I paid for it.

mussed the room up, but whoever it the United States where the total amount had packed up and gone. Young T. of taxes on a piece of real estate does was much impressed with the wonder-not exceed $1.30 a hundred.

t recall his name.

And to this day," said Roosevelt, in Mr. Madden-I am talking about a wondered in vain about the identity of the United States whose taxes are as lo that courteeus burkmate."

the District of Columbia.
In all the States of the Union, in all the West Pointers in the army regard Leonard Wood as a born soldier. By storms arise and all on board the war-ships are obliged to say in out of the intelligent devotion to duty he has lived wet. Jamison alone will be prepared for down the envy and distrust which his rapid promotions excited. B Wood's value in a Mexican would be more than that of Both in Cuba and the ability. pines he proved himself a capable admin Istrator and a vigorous sanitariar Wood has no peer in the army in the triple capacity of tactician, medical man and administrator. In Mexico all his qualifications for high command would be money makes man so.

A Line o' Cheer Each Day o' th' Year.

Written Expressily for The Herald. By JOHN KENDRICK BANGS, CALLERS.

CALLERS.

(Copyright, 19t.)

Last night came Fear
To call, with Doubt.
I summoned Cheer.
And then and there
We kicked them out;
And as they sped
Heels over head
Amid the laughter and the din,
Two other guests came walking in—Courage and Hope—and then we four Tackled the wolf outside my door,
And changed his visage so that he Resembled Opportunity.
The which I seized, so that today

Resembled Opportunity, e which I seized, so that today The which I seized, so that today To fortune's goal I'm on the way!